DEDICATION

This year's El Saguaro is dedicated to May Doan. Mrs. Doan has served the school and its students since 1936 as clerk of the attendance office. Only recently has she resigned her position here to devote her full time to life with her family. The Doan family has long been associated with the school and its affairs. Mr.

John Doan served ten years as clerk of the Board of Education. Our athletic field, scene of many Criminal victories and defeats, bears the name Doan in his memory. The school song we all sing was composed by Marian Doan. In fact Mrs. Doan and her family belong to the school tradition. Although the duties of Mrs.

Doan were to look after the book store and attendance recrds, she did much more. Many is the time that a late student would come to the attendance with a loud and lengthy story of oversleeping or missing the bus trying to beat the twinkling eyes at the game they had taught her themselves. And the student with trouble came to her too, secure in her confidence. It would seem that all the troubles in school were brought to the attention of Mrs. Doan for her to iron out and this she would do in a very human manner. Teachers and students alike would make a path to her doorway with their troubles and they were all straightened out.

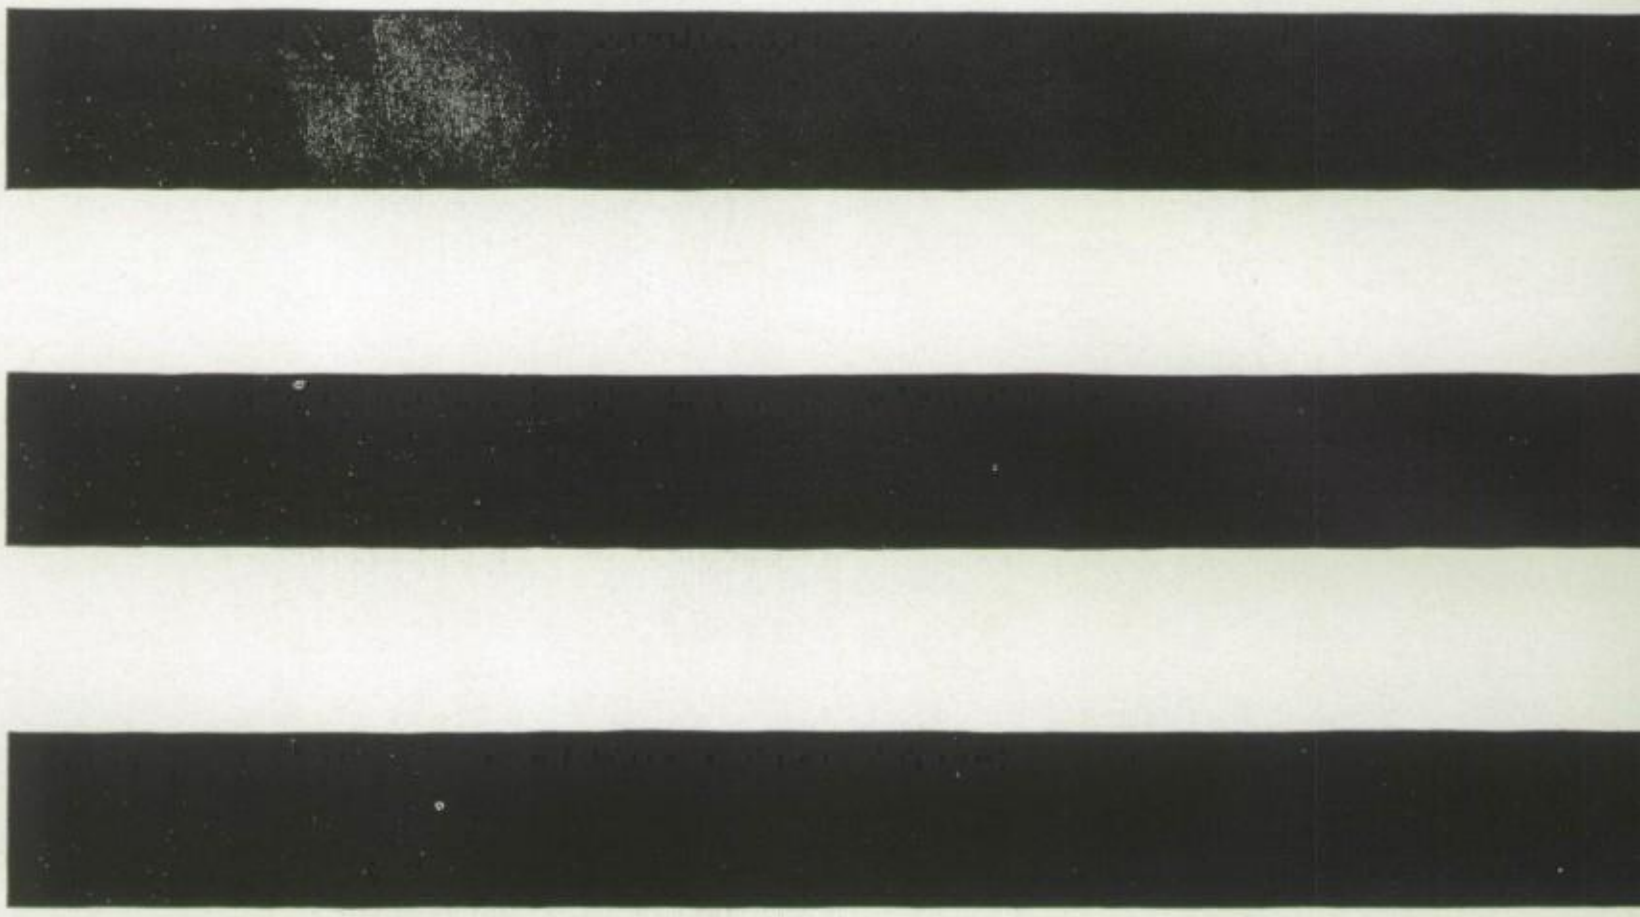
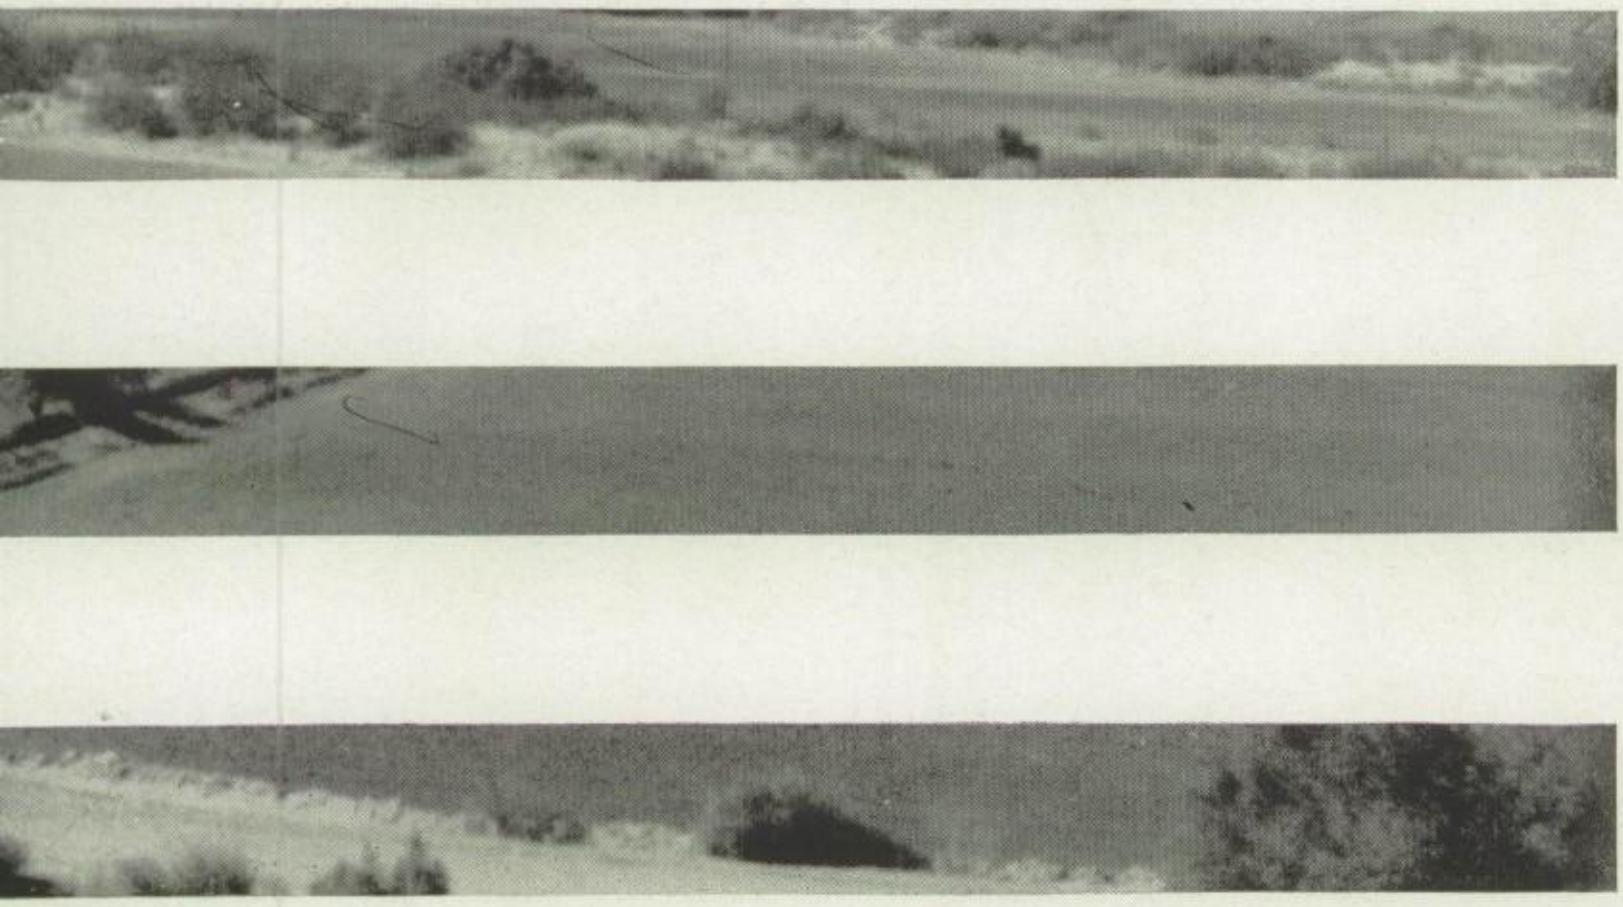
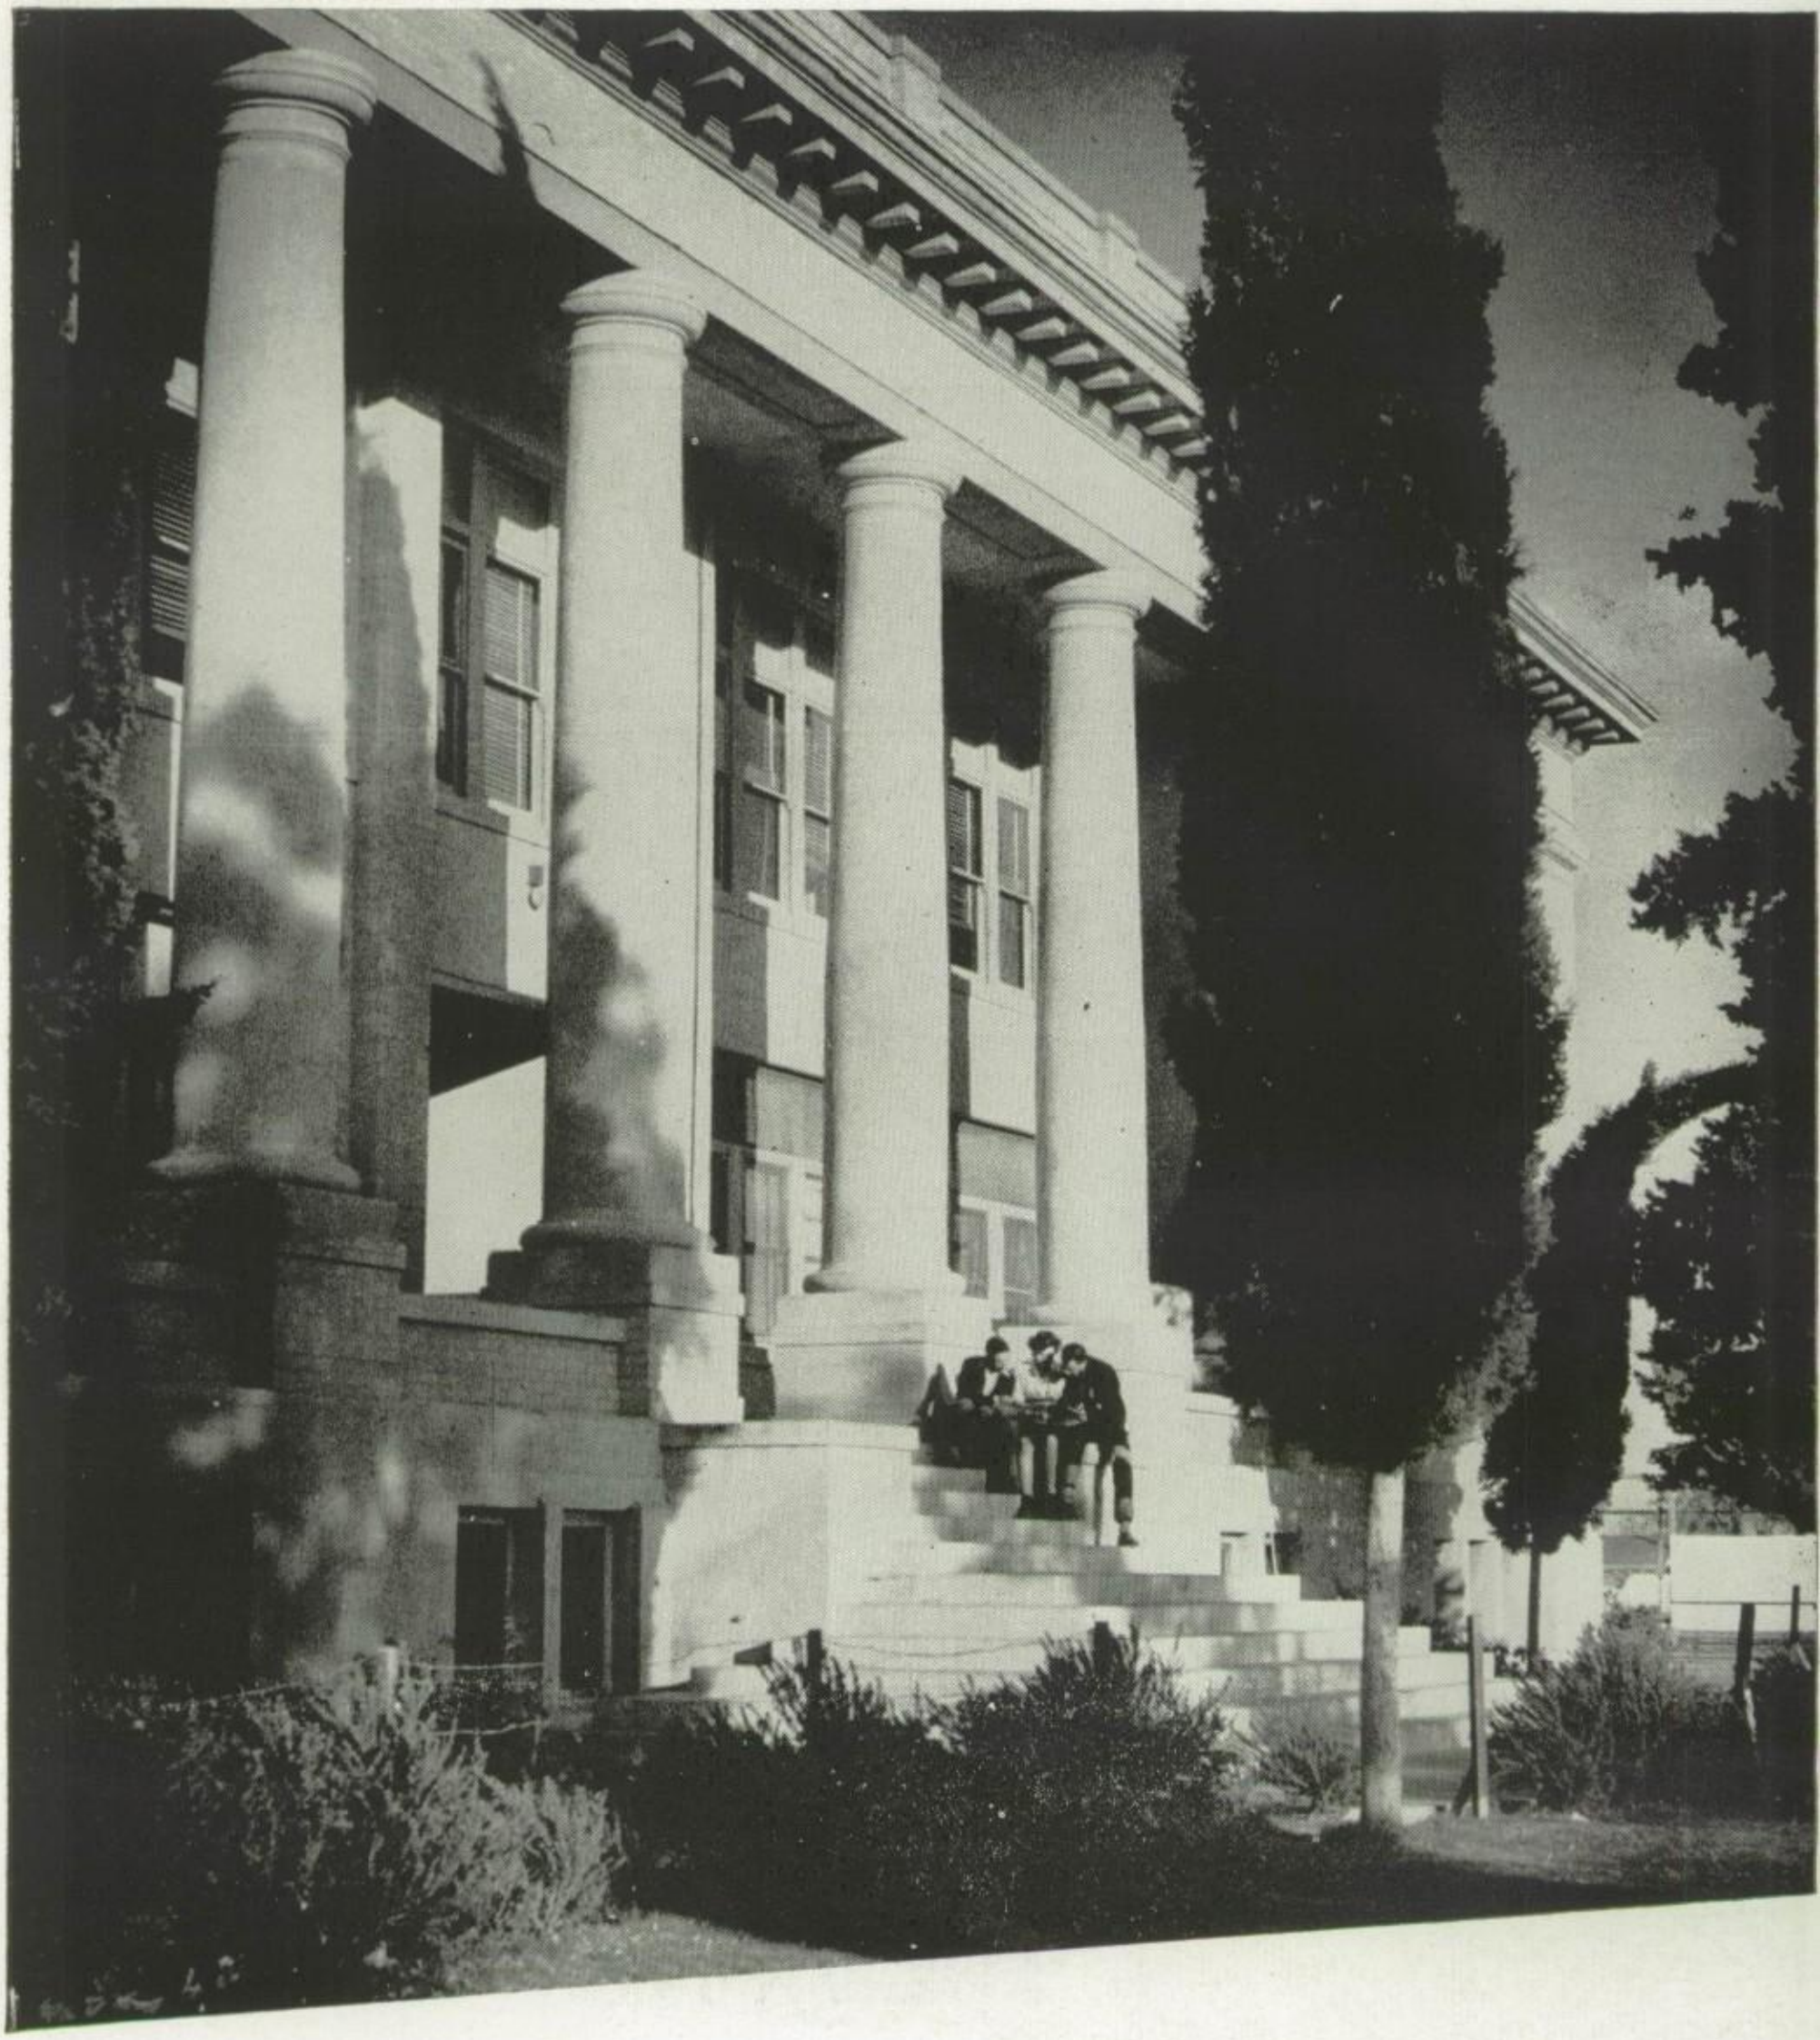
For this unfaltering love of students we sholud like to offer our most sincere appreciation and our most humble thanks for no one who knows this loveable lady will ever forget her or ever stop thinking of her. The silver of her hair and the warmth of her eyes lent to the school a beautiful homey atmosphere.





CAMPUS



MAIN

Oldest building on the campus is the Main Building. The administrative office, attendance office, and science department are on the first floor. The library and study hall occupy the second floor as does the social science department.

SNIDER HALL

Snider Hall, located at the south end of the campus, houses the home economic department, commercial department, mathmetics department, and the English and Spanish departments. Assemblies are held every Thursday in the Auditorium which has a capacity of 830.

GYM

The high school gymnasium, center of indoor sports, also houses the art department, which is located on the second floor. The various school clubs hold their dances in the gym. Boxing matches, basketball tournaments and other exciting events take place under its spacious roof.

Skilled students in sheet metal, wood work, and mechanics are turned out by the Industrial Shop. In 1940 a new wing was added where the students are taught these courses. The agriculture students use part of the large building to hold their classes and laboratories.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The vocational agriculture classes are set up for boys and girls interested in becoming farmers or interested in the technical phases of agriculture.

In the art department three and three-quarter possible units may be earned by the student. Basic and advanced art, sign shop, commercial art, ceramics, crafts and painting make up these units.

AGRICULTURE • ART

Yuma Union High School's curricula offer a student the choice of ten courses of study leading to graduation and a high school diploma. Two college preparatory courses are given, one designed specifically for Arizona schools of higher learning and one for the other colleges and universities of the nation.

Eight vocational courses are offered with major work in art, auto mechanics, agriculture, home economics, industrial arts, secretarial, accounting, and music.

Each course is planned to build within the student a strong foundation for the growth of their interests and abilities, vocational or avocational. Sixty-six subjects make up the list of studies and curricular experiences offered the student in his chosen course. Students are guided by the Principal and Vice-Principal in the choice of course and subject.

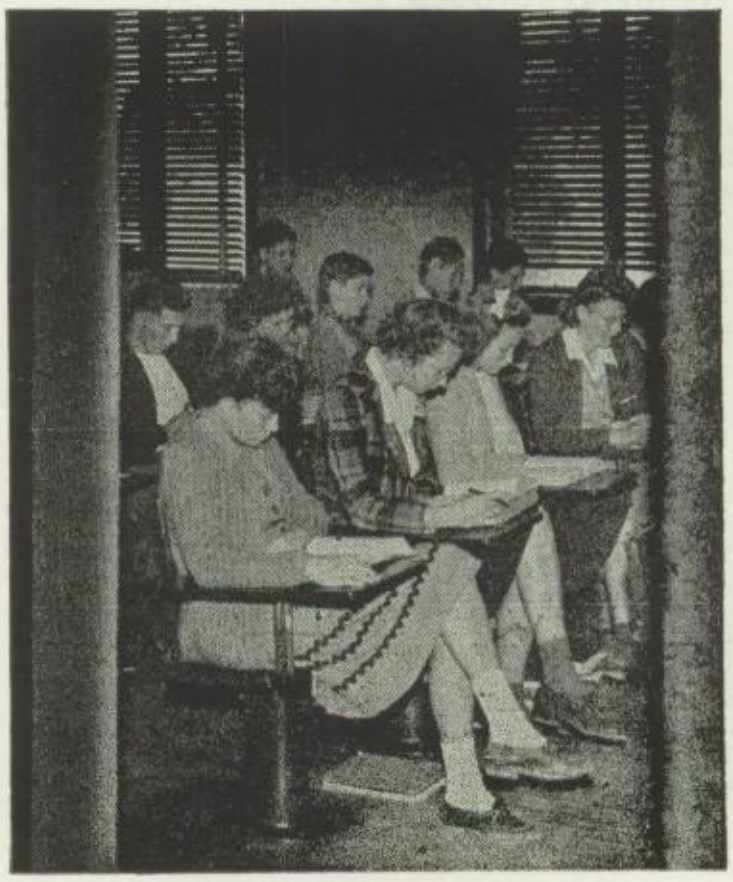
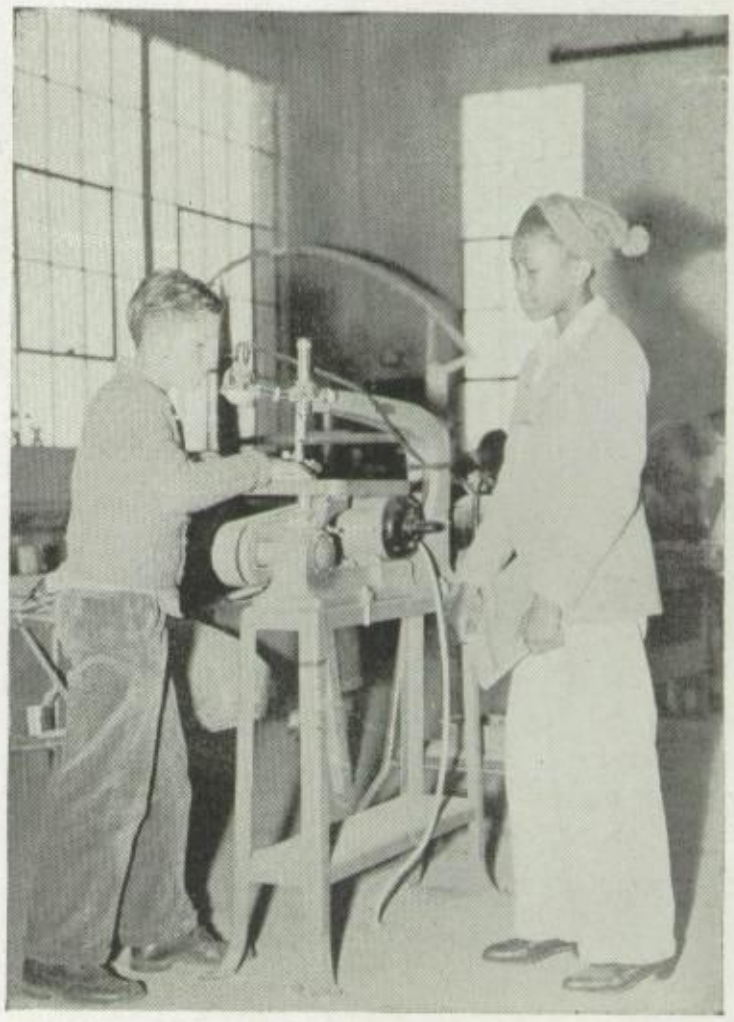
Auto mechanics is one of the boys favorite courses. Many "hot rods" have been turned out by the boys.

Working under the conditions brought on by the war the classes have been more attentive. The students this year have concentrated more and more on learning to speak and use English.

AUTO MECHANICS • BUSINESS • ENGLISH





Three and one half units are offered by the home economics department. Girls are taught the everyday duties of a housewife.

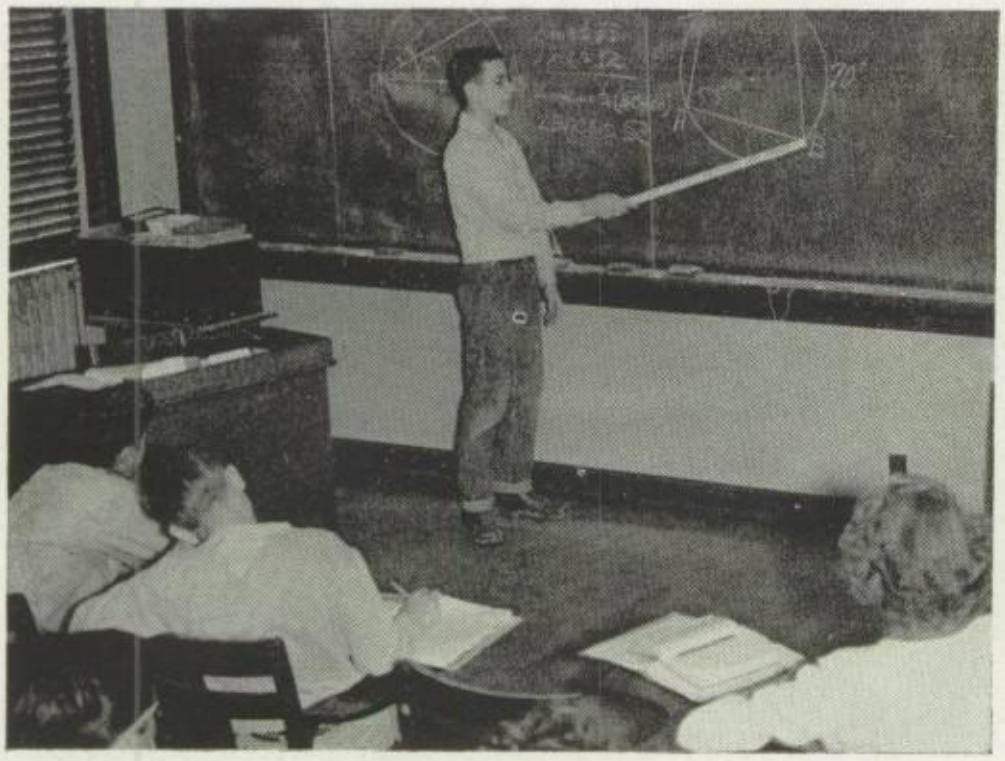
The goal of the industrial art department is to impart to the boy vocational skills in woodwork, sheet metal and auto mechanics.

HOME ECONOMICS • INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The mathematics department offers five units of work to the student. Algebra is very popular with the incoming freshmen every year.

As is the custom of Arizona schools, Spanish is the foreign language taught in the high school. With the Latin-American relations growing more and more everyday, more pupls are enrolling in the Spanish classes. Latin is also taught in YUHS.

The high school band and orchestra is operated by the students. The Girls' Glee Club is very popular among the girls.



MATHEMATICS

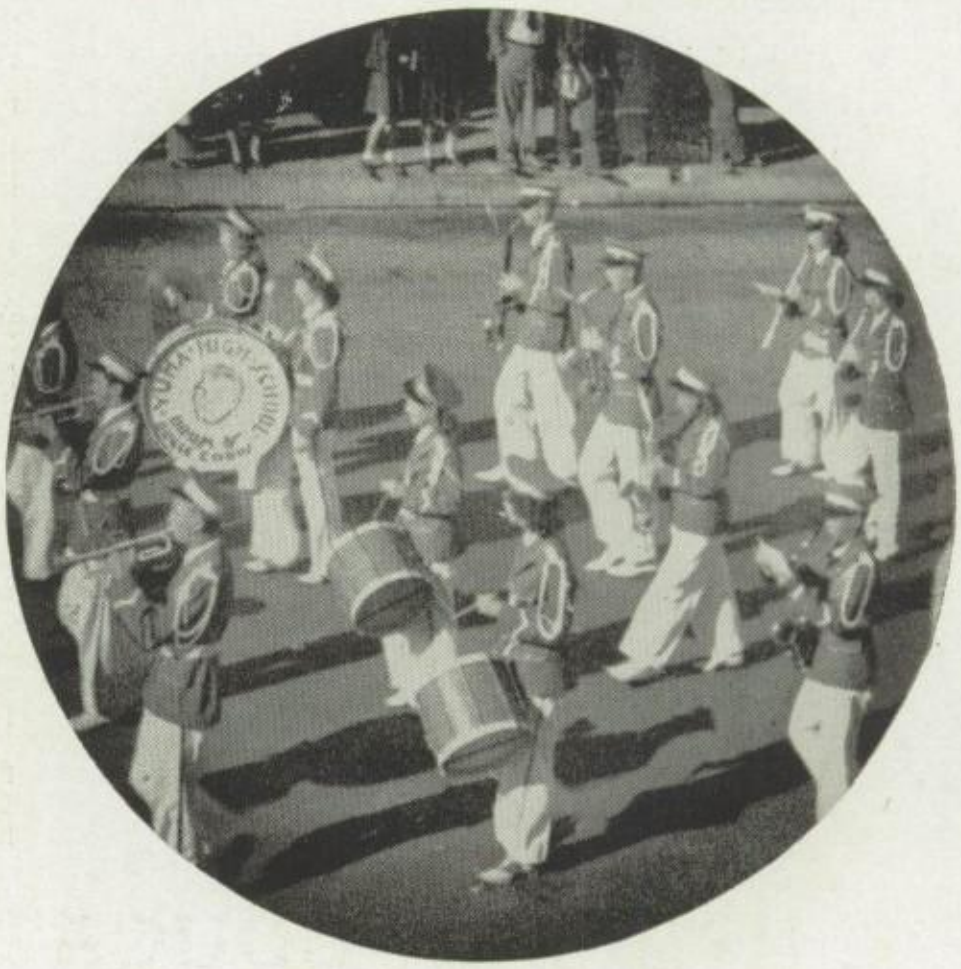
MUSIC



Physical education is one of the most popular classes in YUHS. All sorts of major and minor sports are enjoyed.

Biology is the course all freshmen dream about and the course all sophomores enjoy. In this class many new things are learned by the Sophs and the traditional experience of dissection is encountered.

Our high school offers eight semesters of social sciences, six of which all pupils are required to take.

This year, thanking the teachers for their efforts, many educational movies were shown. M-1 was equipped with blackout shades and all types of movies were shown.

The library, occupying one half the top floor of the Main Building, offered many new books to the students. Old books were rebound and fixed and the general appearance of the room was given a boost.

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL L. T. ROUSE

Education is what the world wants, demands, and will have. Without it there would be no real advancement, advancement as we understand it; that is betterment of conditions relative to ourselves and those associated with us. The vital element of progress is education; for the progress of Yuma Union High School we have much to thank Principal L. T. "Curley" Rouse.

"Curley," we will venture to say, is probably closer to his student body and faculty than darn near any other guy in a principalship. He is a stickler for "letting the kids take over" and sincerely believes that he gets more results by allowing students to form and execute their own laws.

ADMINISTRATION

B. L. BLOHM, R. N. CAMPBELL, H. KRYGER, H. F. COLMAN, D. B. WISENER

Vice-Principal Dingess aims at a wider, student participation in extra currcular activities, increased efficiency in vocational guidance, and a statistical program to give faculty and administrators exact knowledge of each individual student. Results of this cooperative drive should result in wider, better student preparation.

The Board of Education, consisting of Mr. Homer Kryger, president; Mr. H. F. Colman, clerk; Mrs. Blanche L. Blohm; Mr. R. N. Campbell; and Mr. Donald B. Wisener as members have served the Yuma Union High School long and faithfully. It is the function of the Board to determine the policies of the school and to see that these policies are carried out. This Board is elected by our parents and serves without compensation, give freely of their time and effort.

FACULTY

CLARADEL MRS. DOAN

Making their first appearance at YUHS this year were: Miss Edith Haner, commercial subjects; Miss Marjorie Platt, commercial; Miss Leslie Burr, Spanish; Mr. Mike Starr, athletic coach; Mr. Jerome Stone, social living and coach; Miss Conklin, chemistry an physics; and Mrs. Carl Weisser who has returned from a two year absence, is teaching typing.

During the school year we have lost several of our good teachers for various reasons. Mr. Morris, mathematics, has entered the college of dentistry at Berkeley, California. Mr. Hal Starck, science, is studying engineering at the U. of A. Miss Jean Tillet, home economics moved to Phoenix; Mrs. Anna Kate Bouldin Sloan, commercial, was married and is now living in San Bernardino.

Veteran teachers of two years or more are Mr. Walter Arnett, auto mechanics; Mr. Joe Braun, social sciences. Mrs. Ora Lee Chafey, Miss Mable Cloyd, Miss Ruth Foster, English; Mrs. Lucile Haughtelin, history; Mr. Carl Hossler, art; Mr. Arthur McNeil, industrial arts; Mr. John Nankervis, music; Mrs. Laurene Olson, library and science; Miss Elizabeth Rose, physical education; Mr. George Smith, biology; Miss Sue Wentworth, mathematics; Miss Paloma White, Latin and English; Mr. L. C. Dingess, advanced mathematics. and Mr. Ford Gano, agriculture.

Mrs. May Doan held the position of attendance clerk until midyear when she retired, after eight years of service.

Miss Claradell Earp, YUHS alumnus, served her second year as secretary to the principal.

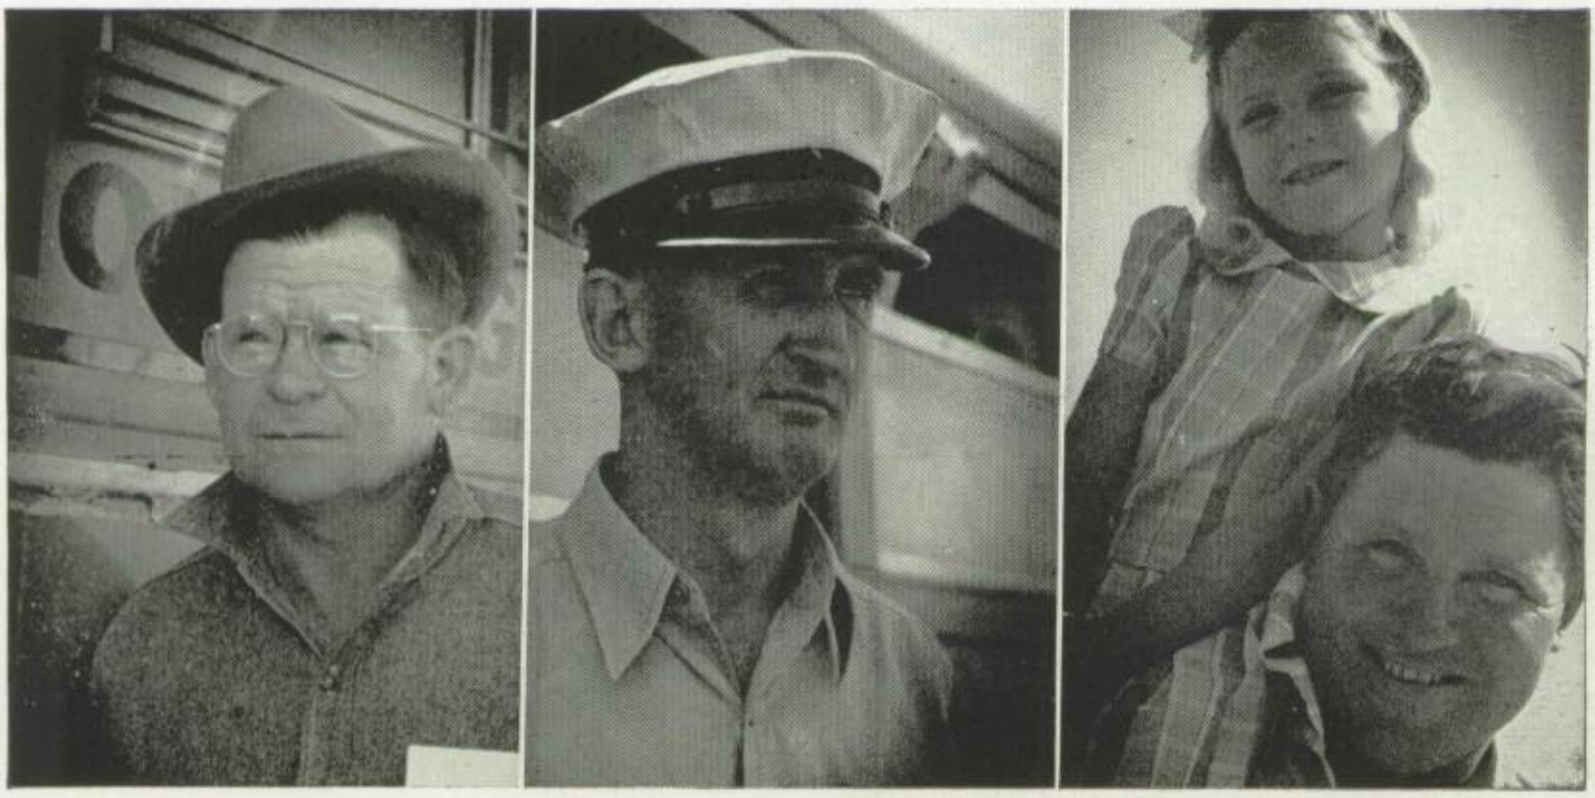
BUS DRIVERS

MRS. FRANK RAMSEY, CHESTER PHILLIPS, ELLIS ALBRIGHT



R. D. REESE, LESLIE C. HIBBARD, JAMES MASON (and Daughter)

These are the boys who roll the buses in off the desert each morning, loaded to the brims with YUHS students from as far out as Wellton and Roll. This year there was a femine addition to the list of drivers, the manpower shortage in evidence. All kidding aside, the drivers have a job of major importance, the responsibility for seeing that a goodly portion of our students reach YUHS on time in the mornings and home in the afternoons, and safely. Without them it would be difficult to carry on the routine affairs of the school.

Our drivers this year include Mrs. Frank Ramsey, Chester Phillips, Ellis Albright, R. T. Reese, Leslie C. Hibbard, and James Mason.

Everyday the maintenance staff performs countless duties and services for the student of the high school. They are called on to open lockers, fix desks, put up decorations, arrange for assemblies, etc. The members of this staff work all the year around.

Ever wonder how it was that the board was always clean in the room and the floor spotless when you came to class in the morning? It was always a good job, wasn't it? Well, you can thank the janitors.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council this year was under the leadership of Dorothy Fleming, student body secretary. This was caused by the absence of Bud Coffeen who joined the navy.

The officers, coupled with the various home room representatives from each class, have discussed school problems with a serious mind during the year. Notable among these problems is the one of listing the members of each club and giving the teachers a copy.

Another action taken by the council was the reactivating of the clubs. Every week the council had a "Social Mixer" in the hall of Snider Hall.

STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

For all those who did not care for sports and the like, "Social Mixers" were provided. The space in front of the auditorium was used and the music was furnished by a juke box. These get-to-gethers were held once a week.

During March the council got together and made a list of all the club members. A list was given to all the teachers. The council was also head of the clean-up campaign.

In the latter part of March the council was turned over to next year's student body vice-president, Mona Lee Morton. The other officers selected at this date for the school year 1944-45 were: secretary, Verda Rae Donkersley; treasurer, Bobbie Ruth McCain; publicity manager, John Durkin, and Minetta Phillips, social manager.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

RUTHIE FRAUENFELDER, MRS. ORA LEE CHAFEY, MINETTA PHILLIPS, NORMA JOYNER, SHIRLEY OLMSTEAD

Every girl in Yuma Union High School is a member of the Girls' League. The League enjoyed a successful year under the direction of the adviser, Mrs. Ora Lee Chafey.

Of the many activities this year, the council went to Phoenix State Convention in October and the State Convention in Mesa in November.

The League gave a special assembly and sponsored a contest dance. They held the annual Mothers Assembly and Tea for Mothers' Day in May. A "Big Sister" program was organized for freshman girls.

The 1943-1944 officers were: Norma Joyner, president; Shirley Olmstead, vice-president; Minetta Phillips, secretary; and Ruth Frauenfelder, acting treasurer.

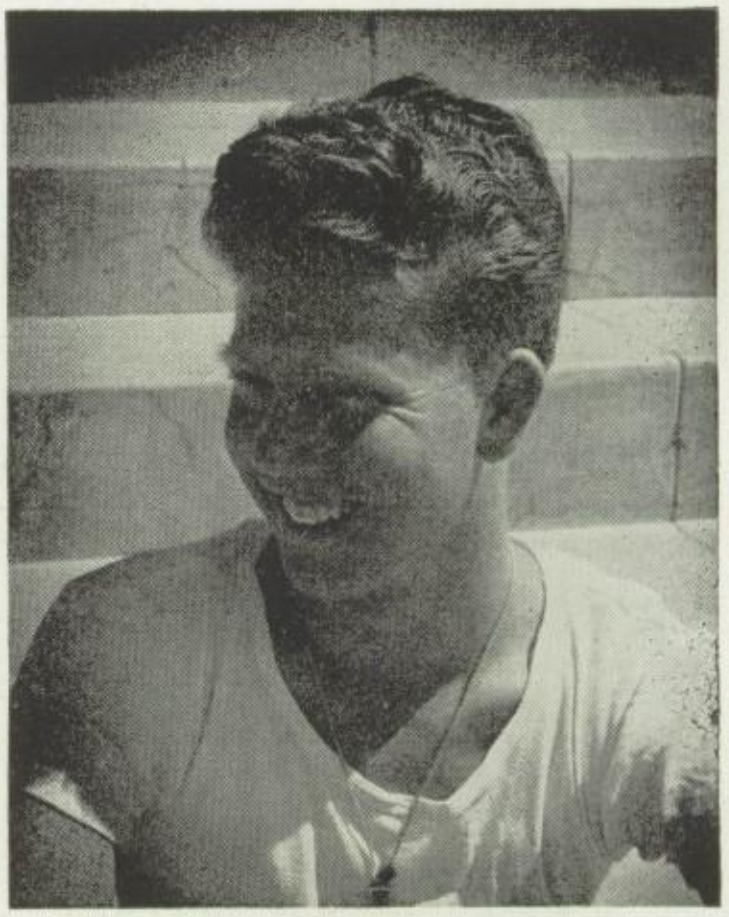
The committee chairmen were: Lura Mae Power, service committee; Rachel Frauenfelder, friendship committee; Ruth Frauenfelder, ways and means committee. La Vera Akins, publicity committee; and Loreta Simons, program committee.

ASSOCIATED MENS' STUDENTS



KENNETH WRIGHT

SONNY POWER

VIC MANN

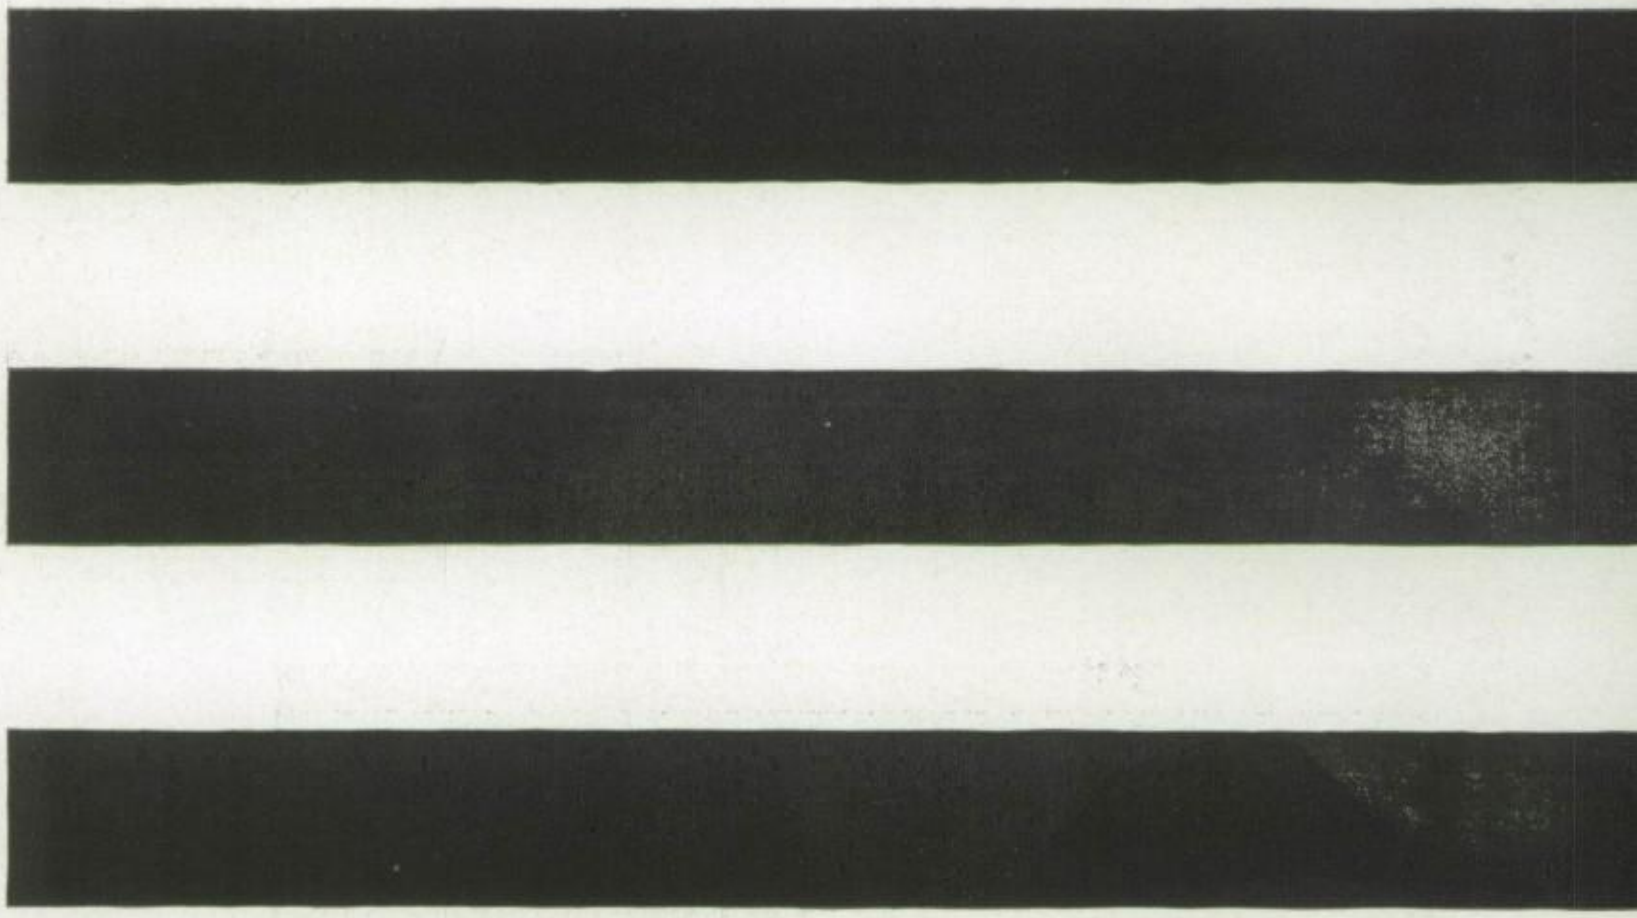
The Associated Men Students, under the capable leadership of Kenneth Wright, have been the most active group in school this year.

They formed the student body cheering section. In previous years the students sat just anywhere on the bleachers but now the cheering is concentrated and everyone has a better time.

The A. M. S. sponsored the winning Campus Queen, Dorothy Fleming, a Father and Son smoker, a Barn Dance and a barbeque for the student body and parents.

The Blue Room, the best dance of the year is credited to the A. M. S. It was one of the two contest dances, the other being given by the G. A. A.

The president of this active gang, is the red-headed Kenneth Wright, Victor Mann is vice-president, and Sonny Power is the bouncer.



CLASSES

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

This year's Senior Class headed by Jimmy Vomicil, as president; Charlie Mabery as vice-president; and Helen Yarwood as secretary-treasurer, proved itself a competent class, despite the number of students who have gone into the Armed Forces.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" was given as their annual play. It was a good play and was excellently presented.

The Ditch Day was held at Laguna Dam and although there were a great many cases of sunburn, stomach aches, blisters, etc., a good time was had by practically everyone, except Allen Hudson.

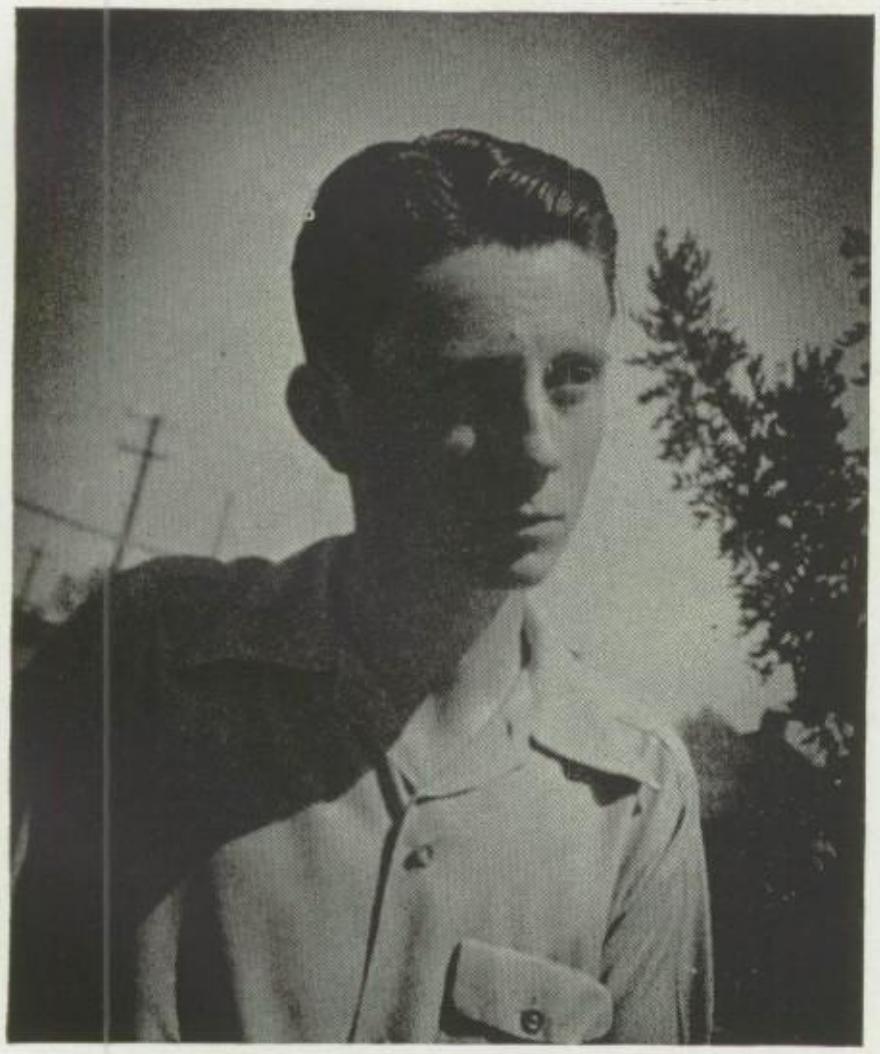
VALEDICTORIAN

Raymond Quon was acclaimed Valedictorian on the basis of his outstanding scholastic record. Raymond's extra curricular activities included the National Honor Society and the Spanish Club. He is interested in science but he plans to go into the Army Air Corps after he graduates.



MERLIN MONTGOMERY

SALUTATORIAN

Merlin Montgomery was chosen as this year's Salutatorian. Merlin is a member of the National Honor Society, Commercial Leaders and the Spanish Club.

He entered this school in 1943, transferring from Aledo, Texas.

This is the second time in the history of Yuma Union High School that both the honors were won by boys.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Having struggled through three years of high school with only one more year to go, the Junior Class prepares to be next years seniors.

The Junior Class president was Kort Meier; Minetta Phillips, vice-president and Verda Rae Donkersley, secretary-treasurer.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

Here it is the end of the year already Why, t'was only yesterday, it seems, that we became sophomores and now we're soon to be juniors. We were extremely happy when we were allowed to initiate the freshmen. We smeared lipstick all over them and then made them eat chili peppers. Of course this was all off the record.

We soon began to function as a class and elected "Skippy" Perkins as our president, Ruthie Frauenfelder, vice-president; and Rachel Frauenfelder as our secretary. Mrs. Ora Lee Chafey was selected as our capable adviser.

We held our annual banquet in the high school gym. Next year we will be juniors???

FROSH

When school opened on September 15, 1943, we rushed in. We were duly initiated by the sophomores and began trying to accustom ourselves to the buildings, teachers and new faces. After a few weeks, we were civilized enough to become curious. We learned all we could about everything in YUHS and began to study. But alas! We found we knew nothing. At this point we really began to work.

We elected John Carvajal as our president; Allen Bagby as vice-president and Ruthie Johnson as secretary and Mr. Carl Hossler as our adviser.

Now we realize that we have done only one-fourth what we must do; that the past is but a taste, a smell, perhaps, of the future, and realizing our mistakes in this last year, we intend to become more perfect Sophomores.

STEVE BAYLESS

This year four students attained the thirty-six points necessary to be granted the coveted All-School Award. Those students are: Jimmy Vomocil, with thirty-eight points, Dorothy Fleming with forty-three points, Marie Frauenfelder with forty-nine points, and Steve Bayless with thirty-six ponts.

The points are earned by participating in extra-curricula activities such as: athletics, dramatics, class officers, student body officers, student council, publication, club officers, and a high academic record.

Marie Frauenfelder, who obtained the highest number of points, received ten points in athletics, seven in dramatics, four as class officer, ten as a student body officer, four for student council, four for club officer and ten points for her academic record.

Dorothy Fleming who received forty-three points scored in the following activities: ten points in athletics, ten points as student body officer, four points for work on the student council and nine points for her work in the Latin and G. A. A. clubs.

Jimmy Vomocil with thirty-eight received ten for athletics, seven in dramatics, four as class officer, seven as a member of the student council and ten points for being on the honor roll for eight semesters.

Steve Bayless this year's hard-working student body president received his points as follows: four for athletics, four for dramatics, four as a class officer, ten as student body officer, seven for two years on the student council and seven points as club officer.

BAND

BAND ON PARADE

The band was very inactive this year due to the lack of instruments and experience. Although there was a shortage of experienced band members, Mr. Nankervis prepared them for a number of occasions. The Band played at all the football games and members of the band participated in political rallys such as the A. M. S. election. They also participated in the rallys for campus queen.

Climaxing almost one full semester of grinding practice, the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Nankervis, gave a spectacular performance at our annual Christmas "sing". Several solos from girls in the club helped to round out the program of varied choral numbers.

The ensemble, picked from the chorus, this year chose to remain in the background till graduation exercises, at which time they sang several delightful melodies. A new yet distinctive group this year entered the limelight. That was the String Quartette. The four violins, accompaned by a bass viola and piano, blended together in a rare and beautiful quality. This group played before several civic clubs and also at graduation services.

SENIOR PLAY

"Arsenic and Old Lace" was presented by the Senior Class on January 28, to a capacity filled auditorium.

The story centered around the mad Brewster family who had twelve men buried in the cellar. The cast gave an excellent performance to a very tense and amused audience.

Marie Frauenfelder and Dorothy Fleming portrayed the old maid aunts, Martha and Abby Brewster. Mable McLauchlin as Elaine Harper and John Westover as Mortimer Brewster held the romance interest. Other players were: Elmon Sapp, Rev. Dr. Harper; Allen Hudson, Lt. Rooney; David Molina, Teddy Brewster; Donal Hackett, Officer Brophy; Raymond Quon, Officer Klein; David Hyams, Mr. Gibbs; Charles Mabery, Jonathon Brewster; Jimmy Vomocil, Dr. Einstein; Edward Power, Officer O'Hara; and Bill Thacker as Mr. Witherspoon. The play was directed by Mr. Joe Braun, class adviser, and assisted by Mr. George Smith.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Junior Class presented "The Fighting Littles" to an admiring audience March 24. The three act farce was packed with laughs and hilarious situations.

The cast was composed of Buddy Stewart as Mr. Little; Goody Little was played by Mona Lee Morton; LaVera Akins, Mrs. Little; Filmer, the son was played by John Durkin; Ham Ellers, suitor, George Ogram; another suitor, Norman Peel, by Carl Ammons; Cousin Olita by Patsy McCoy; Mary Martha Barkley as Henriette; Antoinette, Filmer's girl friend, by Pat Ham; Almatina, the colored maid by Mary Beth Smith; Cuckoo, a friend by Grace Woods; Screwball, another friend, Ethelene Hendricks; Dickie Harpendale, a mean little kid, by Larry Ballard. Mrs. Harpendale, Peel's aunt by Marjorie Bradshaw and Miss Pologa, an Egyptian dancer by Verda Rae Donkersley.

Beginning early in the year to produce a super annual, we, of the staff came into many conditions of delay that hampered the production of our book. Accident to the equipment made the going rough.

The best possible engraving along with the best printing is incorporated into one big book produced for the students of YUHS.

Working with editor-in-chief Richard Schuman were Marjorie Coon as associate editor, Norma Joyner and Helen Yarwood as business managers, Jimmy Gilmore as sports editor, Allen Hudson as feature editor, Elanor Pihl and Mildred Simunek handled the classes with Ellen Kimball as typist.

Mr. Carl Hossler, our adviser has coming to him much thanks for his untiring work on the production.

Taking over the editorship at the end of the first quarter, Allen Hudson found himself burdened with many problems that any new editor would find.

Pitching in with feverish haste the journalism class began to produce stories. After the paper began to find its way into the students hands every week, the paper shortage again became apparent. The paper could be produced only twice a month. The Editor and his staff feretted out all the news they could find and then assigned the stories to the journalism class.

COACHES

Hilton R. "Mike" Starr came to YUHS from Greeley, Colorado, where he was engaged in the training of Army Air Force Pre-flight Cadets. "Mike", a former Greeley athlete, starred in football, basketball, and track both in high school and college. Before returning to the Greeley faculty he had coached five years in Wyoming.

This year "Mike" coached football, basketball and track at YUHS and we of the school must give him a great deal of credit for a job well done in rejuvenating the boys physical education department.

Jerry Stone comes to Yuma from Cape Giradeau, Missouri, where he played two years of high school football and one of track. He is a graduate of the Southeast Misouri State College where he participated in athletics. He received his M.A. at the University of Arizona in 1941. At Yuma, Coach Stone assisted Starr in football, coached B squad basketball and baseball.

MANAGERS

The boys that really took a beating this year, as in all years, were the managers of the different sports, namely, "Red" Wright, Robert Gleason and Joe Lorance in football and basketball, and Ed Power in baseball. These are the unsung heroes of the athletic department. The boys who clean up the mess after the show is over on the gridiron, the court and the diamond.

VARSITY

With no captain elected at the start of the season, the Criminals relied upon a different captain for each game, selecting an honorary captain at the end of the season. The choice of the squad was big Bob Sawers, stellar 180 pound tackle, who was also chosen most valuable player. Bob has ben a varsity tackle since his Sophomore year and has been outstanding in his line play, though his possibilites were often unrealzed. His constant fighting spirit kept the Criminal team on their toes. We thank you, Bob.

FOOTBALL

Almost a war casualty this year, the YUHS Criminal football team got off to a late start in their poorest season in several years. The call to service caught Yuma with very few experienced men returning, and injuries cut the list down further. Lack of experience and fumbling in crucial moments lost many a chance for a score. Practice was delayed three weeks in starting.

Yuma—O Medics—20

With only two weeks practice, Yuma's Criminal eleven opened the season with the Evacuation Hospital and went down to defeat before a heavier, more mature service eleven to the score of 20-0.

Power plays by the Medics pushed over three touchdowns. The Crims greatest scoring opportunity came at the beginning of the third period when Lopez received the kick-off on his own thirty yard line and ran it to the fifty. A series of running plays lost ground when a pass from Anderson to Osborne made twenty yards, failed to make a first down by inches. This ended our only scoring threat.

YUMA—0 BRAWLEY—2

The Criminals dropped their second game to Brawley by a score of 2-0. A punt by Pihl was blocked and recovered behind our goal line, thus giving the Wildcats their lone score. After a smashing air attack, we drove our way to the Brawley two yard line as the game ended.

EL CENTRO FOOTBALL GAME

YUMA—6 PHOENIX—43

Failing to break the Phoenix jinx, the Criminals suffered a 33-0 loss at the hands of the Coyotes in the Phoenix Stadium.

In the third quarter, the Yuma team received the ball on the Phoenix forty-nine yard line and on the second play Vic Mann passed to Robison who received the ball and ran it to the two yard line. Mann plunged through the center of the line on the next play for Yuma's only score.

YUMA—0 El Centro—27

Outgaining the Central Spartans, Yuma nevertheless succumbed to a heavier team through lack of an experienced backfield. Fumbling at crucial moments cost the Criminals their scoring opportunities.

YUMA—0 CALEXICO—61

A crippled Yuma team journeyed to Calexico to take the worst beating ever suffered by a Criminal team at the hands of an Imperial Valley eleven. Sawers, Ballard, and Vomocil were absent from the lineup and Coach Starr was unable to attend because of a broken ankle received in a practice scrimmage. The Bullogs unleashed a smashing aerial attack that had the Criminals bewildered from start to finish.

YUMA—7 CALEXICO—13

The return game with the Calexico Bulldogs was a different story. After leading by a score of seven to six, the Criminals succumbed to last minute attack in which Samaha passed to Brown for a score. The closing minutes of the game found Yuma on the Bulldog two yard line, but a fumble lost the ball as the game ended.

YUMA—13 ST. MARYS—19

Again Yuma almost upset the dope bucket in the last game of the season against the highly touted St. Mary's Knights. A magnificent defense game by Jack Madero and Bob Sawers tied up the heavier Knights running attack. Yuma led until the last six minutes of the ball game, when the Knights pushed over a touchdown. The game ended with Yuma again knocking at the gates of pay dirt.

BASKETBALL

After a lapse of a year, basketball was resumed at YUHS under the tutelage of Coach Mike Starr. After a short two weeks practice, the season opened with a trip to the Salt River Valley, where games were lost to Peoria, Mesa and the state champions, Phoenix. During the Christmas holidays Peoria returned the game and overwhelmed the Criminal basketeers.

A trip to the Imperial Valley cost Yuma another defeat this time at the hands of a fighting El Centro five. We first broke into the victory column on the Crims journey to Ajo where they split a two game series with the Red Raiders. The Yuma five improved steadily and defeated a crack Calexico team on the Yuma court the following week and again split a series with Ajo when Ajo returned their games on the Yuma court.

Calexico defeated us in a fast game on the Bulldog court. The same day, the reserves visited Holtville, where they dropped a close decision to the Viking five. The final game of the season was lost to El Centro.

Lettermen for the year were as follows: Joe Osborne, Victor Mann, James Robison, Tommy Tudor, Joy McDaniels, Larry Higgins, Bill Pitchford, David Lott, Lee Erwin, and Frank Townsend. Mann was elected captain. Reserves who received "B" letters were Bennie Mann, Charles Rustin, Rudy Pihl, J. C. Davis and Smiel Ali.

Fast breaking forwards and a tight defense were the outstanding features of the Juvenile Delinquents of 1944. Sparked by small, speedy Kenneth "Red" Wright, the mob met and defeated all competition in their class, save the Calexico Bullpups, undefeated in the past two years.

The junior criminals opened their season at El Centro and defeated a taller and more experienced five by a score of 22-17. With one victory under their belts they next trekked to Gila Bend and Ajo for a pair of games the same day. An experienced Gila Bend Varsity bottled up the Yuma offense and caught the Mob's defense unaware to rack up a 20-7 victory. A few hours later, Ajo's B team fell before an angry and determined five by the score of 19-15.

The first home appearance of the B-Squad found them overwhelming a local team, the Freaks, to the tune of 27-11, in the preliminary to the Varsity-Ajo game.

Gila Bend visited Yuma the following week and a different story was entered on the books. Determined to avenge the previous defeat, the Mob jumped into an early lead and increased it throughout the game, winning by a score of 28-19.

Calexico invaded Yuma to hand the Delinquents their first defeat in B competition. The youthful Criminals led at halftime by a score of 16-10, but faded before the sharpshooting Calexicans, losing 27-35.

The following week found the B-Squad journeying to Calexico for a return game which almost resulted in an erasing of the earlier defeat. Yuma outclassed the taller, Bullpups for three quarters, but in the final three minutes, with Yuma leading 25-21, rangy Dick Wright fouled out and the Yuma defense crumpled. Final score 27-25.

BASEBALL

In their regular schedule for 1934, the Yuma Criminal Baseball team split the season with three wins and three losses. Due to the war a curtailed program was necessitated.

The Criminals opened the season against Calexico and went down to defeat 7-5. A few days later they bowed to El Centro, 7-0. Against Holtville, the Criminal nine hit their stride and behind the three hit ptching of Rudy Pihl they swamped a weak Holtville team, 14-2.

The first home game of the season saw Calexico drop a close decision to Yuma. The score was 3-2. El Centro proceeded to administer a thorough shellacking to the Criminals when they journeyed to the Yuma diamond for the fifth game of the season. Score, Yuma 1, El Centro 14. Closing their season, Yuma again downed the Holtville eleven by a score of 5 to 4.

ELIZABETH ROSE

COACH

Coach Rose, formally known as Miss Elizabeth Rose, director of girls' physical education, the intramural sports progrom and coach of the tennis team. The greatly expanded and highly successful intramural sports competition was the emergency born answer to a curtailed athletic schedule forced on the school by the circumstances of war last year. It was begun experimentally last year as a noon hour activity with volleyball as the game. Its success gave impetus to this year's series of contests and tournament play in not only volleyball but tennis, shuffle-board, horse-shoes, checkers, softball and ping-pong.

The program as it now operates gives every student an opportunity to participate in competitive sports.

Miss Rose also aroused a lost interest in tennis and built a capable team of racqueteers who made a good showing in interscholastic competition, winning matches against the best teams of the Imperial and Salt River Valleys.

TENNIS

The tennis team, rejuvenated, came back with vigor and flash to win all games played during this season. The boys team defeated El Centro, Calexico and Brawley of the Imperial Valley, proceeded to whip the Phoenix High, North Phoenix High and St. Mary's of the Salt River Valley. Members of the boys team are Frankie Townsend, in the No. 1 position; Bill Stevenson, No. 2; Bill Anderson, No. 3; Eugene Swenson, No. 4; Lessel Conrad, No. 5; and Larry Ollason, No. 6.

Bill Stevenson and Frank Townsend, doubles team, were undefeated. They went to Tucson for the Open State Tournament and returned with a junior doubles championship defeating some of the best players of the Southwest.

The girls were not so acomplished. Out of six meets they defeated only Calexico. Members of the girls team are Verda Rae Donkersley, in the No. 1 position; Salome Lopez, No. 2, Barbara Fry, No. 3; Bridgette Black, No. 4; Marie Frauenfelder, No. 5; Betty Patterson, No. 6.

The first volley ball tournament played between home rooms of each class was won by Mr. Starr's freshmen home room, and Miss Tillett's senior home room. In the play off, all teams fell before the killing attack of Mr. Braun's sophomores who became champions.

The next tournament, known as the All-Stars, was won by the Juniors All-Star team. Members of these teams were elected by each class.

The junior teams made a clean sweep in all tournaments played. They defeated the seniors in volley ball; they defeated the sophmores in basketball and they are favored to win in softball.

Other sports enjoyed by the girls class in Physical Education were soccer, golf, archery, touch football and later in the spring, swimming.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club is composed of those students taking Latin and making a three or better in their work. Also those students who have successfully passed the two-year are eligible for entrance into the club.

Under the capable leadership of the club's president, Bob Callahan, and the enthusiasm of the members, the club has had a very sucessful year. The initiation was held in true Latin style, depicting a trip through Hades and thence to the Elysian Fields. The annual banquet which is the highlight of the year was held on the 17th of December. The banquet was successfully carried off with gladiatorian combats and songs between courses.

Each year the club has charge of an assembly. This year the scene was laid in the Underworlds, and was excellently depicted by the stage crew under the leadership of Ned Dusenbery. Through it trailed the heroes and villians of Ancient Rome and Greece and some of modern day. To celebrate the success of the assembly, the club had a picnic a week later which all enjoyed.

The officers for the year were: Bob Callahan, president; Lou Helen Bennett, vice-president; Jane Slaten, secretary and treasurer. The adviser was Miss Paloma White.

Y CLUB

The honor students participating in school activities are the boys of the Y Club. They are gathered to promote good sportsmanship and to encourage more boys to participate in athletics.

This year they had a thorough initiation. The incoming members were pounced on with unmerciful glee. Preceeding the initiation was the annual Y club picnic, which is one of YUHS's many traditions.

The officers were: Bob Sawers, president; Vic Mann, vice-president; and Davy Lott, secretary-treasurer. The adviser of the club was Coach "Mike" Starr.

STAMP CLUB

The Stamp Club was organized for students interested in collecting stamps as a hobby.

This year the stamp club met every other Thursday in the cafeteria. One of the projects was the annual stamp exhibit in the show case in Snider Hall.

The social activities of the club for the year were a hayride and an all day fishing trip at Laguna Dam with fathers and Jerry Stone, adviser attending.

The officers for this year were James Robison, president; Jerry Flint, vice-president. and Forest Balinger, secretary-treasurer.

WARDENS CLUB

The Wardens club was ably led through an active program by president John Homer Westover.

The Athletic Award was presented to Bob Sawers by the Wardens this year. The club sponsored the Lettermens Banquet. Other activities during the year were; two picnics held at the sand hills, two initiations, a dance and an assembly. The club was also in charge of the concession counter at the Football games.

There are twenty-five members in the club and there are possible plans for the club to sponsor an orphan or refugee child.

The officers for the club are: John Homer Westover, president; Bobbie Ruth McLain, secretary-treasurer. The adviser is Mr. McNeil.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club consisted of thirty-three members. During the year the Pep Club sponsored the Annual Bonfire Ralley, Pep Club assembly and a supper dance, also a student body dance to fill in for the Pep club carnival which they were unable to have this year.

The officers for this year were: Verda Rae Donkersley, president; Mona Lee Morton, vice-president; Bobbie Ruth McCain, secretary and treasurer; and Lovene Splawn, corresponding secretary. The adviser is Mrs. Helen Weisser.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Impressive ceremonies twice a year initiates YUHS honor students into one of the most exclusive societies in the school, the Natonal Honor Society. This organization stands for character, leadership, scholarship and service. In order to be admitted to this group, a grade of a two is required in all subjects throughout the year. At ceremonies which are held in assembly before the whole student body, each prospective member of the group marches forward and lights candle from a burning brazier pledging himself to uphold the standards and leadership as a member of the Yuma Chapter of the National Honor Society.

The main duty of this society is to perform service to the school by getting assignments to all sick students.

Miss Sue Wentworth is adviser; Lura Mae Power is president; Shirley Olmstead, vice-president; and Joy Morton, secretary.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The aims of the Future Farmers of America are to promote a better and more practical understanding of modern farm methods, make the community, state and nation conscious of advantages of farm life.

The F.F.A. entered in the Mission Field day at Phoenix and they entered the Judging Contest. They gave the annual Barn dance in the high school gym. Their banquet was held in the cafeteria. Together with the Home Ec club they presented the third of assembly contest.

The officers of the club were: Edward Powers, president; Lawrence Castine, vice-president; James Robison, secretary; and James Garrett, treasurer. Mr. Ford Gano was the adviser.

TENNIS CLUB

The officers of the Tennis Club this year were Miss Rose, adviser; Bill Stevenson, acting president; and Salome Lopez, secretary.

The aim of the Tennis Club is to develop better sportsmanship and to encourage enthusiasm in tennis. The club sponsors net tournaments among those students who take tennis. The leading racketeers engage in tennis matches throughout the state. The qualifications for membership are that a student be in good standing and take active part in tennis playing.

DRAMA CLUB

To create interest in dramatics in high school and among the townspeople is the objective of the Dramatic Club. Each year members present a major production and numerous skits. Due to conditions and circumstances the Drama Club did not present a major production although for the Christmas play they presented "Hyacinths for Christmas" which was received and applauded by the student body.

Officers for this year were: Bill Snailum, president; Erwin Peterkin, vice-president; Janet Slaten, secretary; and Miss Mable Cloyd, adviser.

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association, one of the most active organizations in school this year, was headed by Marjorie Bradshaw. The Girl-Dates-Boy dance was one of the number of projects this year. The King and Queen of the dance were Dorothy Fleming and Charlie Mabery.

Other projects were the G.A.A. and Y club picnic where initiates were put through traditional rituals. The G.A.A. banquet was held May 12, at that time the athletic awards were presented. Letter Y's were given to the girls who had earned them during the year. The election of officers for next year was also held at the banquet.

Marjorie Bradshaw was this year's able president; Ann Segulja, vice-president; Rachel Frauenfelder, secretary Ruthie Frauenfelder, treasurer; Carmen Kehl, reporter, and Miss Elizabeth Rose was the adviser.
